October Highlights

St. Francis Day Blessing of the Animals. Sunday, October 7 at our 9 a.m. service. All pets of all kinds are welcome, so please bring your furry, feathered, scaled or other companion. Coffee hour follows.

Diocesan Convention will be held October 5th and 6th at Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton. Clergy and lay delegates from all parishes will gather to hear about the state of the diocese, make decisions, and plan. They will also work in small groups, pray and sing together, and enjoy some good time of fellowship. Please keep them in your prayers.

Archdeacon Howard Stringfellow will meet with the vestry on Tuesday, October 9th at 6. This visit is in preparation for our time with the Bishop.

A memorial service for Norma Duddie will be held on Saturday, October 13th at 11 a.m. There will be a reception following in the parish hall. Come and bid farewell to our sister, Norma, and greet her family.

Bishop Paul Marshall will visit us on Sunday, October 21 for our 9 o'clock service. This is his annual visitation to Trinity. He will join us for a reception after the service and will be available to talk with us. Please make plans to attend and make him welcome.

Deacon's Masses are celebrated each Saturday at 5 p.m. Deacon Hazel Hunt is the preacher and presider. (note: there is no service on Saturday, October 6).

Holy Eucharist with music, Sundays at 9 a.m. Service Music is from Wonder, Love and Praise, the supplement to the Hymnal.

Buildings and grounds: The refinishing of the wood around the new fronts doors has been completed and looks wonderful. Senior Warden Dan Gerhart has been acting as junior warden doing painting and other projects, assisted by Marny and occasionally by others. The last phase of our conversion to gas heat is in the works; it may not be done by this weekend, so please wear a sweater!

The Church Picnic was a great success. There are pictures on our web site and our Facebook page. Many thanks to the Gerharts for welcoming us to their beautiful home.
