Pentecost - June, 2013

Dedication of our new doors, Trinity Sunday

Let there be light.
On the tallest ladder I've ever seen, Dan and Marn Gerhart, with help from Jesse Bennett, installed the new light fixture over the front door. It is a wonderful addition and has a photo cell so that it comes on only at dark. While up on the ladder, Dan has repainted the lower tower louver over the door and plans to do more. Our heartfelt thanks to you!

Clothing and Household Goods Giveaway -- We are collecting clothing of all sizes for all ages as well as household goods. Donations should be brought to the parish hall. We'll schedule the giveaway when we have enough items. Do some Spring cleaning and donate your items. If you would like to know more, please talk to Marie Bubniak, our Outreach Coordinator.

Our new junior acolyte, Alexandra Ayres, has been serving at our worship and doing a great job. If you have children or grandchildren who would be interested in becoming an acolyte, please talk to David O'Dell.

Don't forget this year's ECW Project: Trinity Soup Kitchen, Bethlehem. Items needed include shampoo and conditioner, body wash, deodorant, razors, soap, tooth paste, mouthwash, socks, cotton underwear, cough drops and OTC medications. Hotel or sample sized items are also welcome. You can begin gathering things now; we'll send them along to Diocesan Convention, October 4-5.

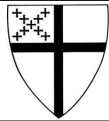

Congratulations High School Graduates Chandler and Savannah Paul and Michael Maneval! There are pictures and announcements on our bulletin board.
