Early Pentecost - June, 2015

June Highlights

June 21: Vestry meets. First day of summer!

June 22: 78th General Convention begins. Elected deputies from all dioceses of the Episcopal Church will meet for 10 days in Salt Lake City. This convention will include the election of a new Presiding Bishop as The Most Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori's term comes to an end. Please pray for those meeting together. Our deputies are The Rev. T. Scott Allen, (Chair), Mark Laubach, The Rev. Jane Arrington Bender, Cathy Bailey, The Very Rev. Tony Pompa, Dr. Linda Rogers, The Rev. Canon Anne Kitch, and Raymond Arcario.

Summer service music is from Wonder, Love and Praise, the supplement to the Hymnal. The Gloria is #900, a John Rutter tune; the Sanctus is #858, a traditional American folk tune.

Vestry News

Work on the apse is nearly complete. John Jones has done a beautiful job resurfacing and repainting the peeling plaster.

Athens United Methodist Church Food Pantry

Our weekly grocery donations will go to their new food pantry. They are also hosting a free meal the third Thursday of the month. Especially needed are peanut butter, macaroni and cheese, soup, hamburger helper type items, tuna and canned vegetables. The first Sunday of the month is still designated for donations for Sayre Senior Center: Coffee, creamer, tea, paper products, cards, puzzles, activity books.

A railing for the front step: The vestry is exploring putting up a short railing from the sidewalk to the first step. After we check on code requirements, it should be a quick job and will provide steadiness to those of us who need it.

Pledge statements will go out June 30. Remember, this is so that you can compare your own accounting with ours; it is not a bill!

In July we welcome back Deacon Hazel while Fr. Ben is on vacation as well as Don Barton for a Sunday.
