Pentecost - July, 2017

July Highlights

Holy Eucharist II with music, each Sunday at 9 a.m.

July 9 and 16th - Mother Hazel Hunt will celebrate and preach. We always feel like we are greeting a family member when she joins us as she was a member of Trinity when she went through her discernment process on her journey to ordination. She served as a deacon for many, many years and was ordained to the priesthood last year. Come and make her welcome!

July 25 - Celebration committee meeting, 6:30

175 Years of Trinity

The vestry has been discussing what kind of celebration we should have for our 175th for quite a long time. The final decision was to have a musical celebration.

The first meeting of the members of Trinity was on August 1, 1842, so it seemed like a good idea to celebrate it close to that date.

There will be a concert and reception on Sunday afternoon, August 13 at 3 p.m. in the church. We are working on the line up of musicians and it is going to be really something ... as in something for everyone ... everything from bagpipes to blues, classical to cabaret, rock to ... well, you get the idea. We're hoping the event will be something of a Trinity family reunion, so please start spreading the word now.

We'll also be including some bits of history during the event. We welcome your family stories about Trinity. Talk to Laura Cama, who is coordinating the research.

There will be more information in the next newsletter. Usually in the summer we do one newsletter for July and August, but as the planning for the celebration gets more fine-tuned, there will be more details to share with you in August, so we are doing an extra newsletter.

As a bishop once said, "church should be fun." This will be, we promise.

Speaking of music

Our organist, Joe Barber, has been having some health problems. We've bravely sung hymns a capella, and Nate and Barbara will fill in with guitar when they are available. Please keep Joe in your prayers.

Taking care of our buildings

The rectory porch has finally been repaired (you could see through the support beams) and Nate Schwartzberg, our Junior Warden, has built new steps. It looks great and will be painted in one year. He will also be working on the church doors where they are weathering. We are also looking for someone to clear the gutters.

That's it for now - more to come!
