Late Pentecost - October, 2019

October Highlights

Friday and Saturday, October 4 and 5 - Diocesan Convention, Reading. Please pray for our diocesan family as they gather, and especially for Trinity's delegate, Marny Gerhart.

Sunday, October 6, St. Francis Day Observance - Holy Eucharist II and Blessing of the Animals. This is always a wonderful service; all pets are welcome. Bring the whole family!

Sunday, October 15 - Morning Prayer, Rite I. Fr. Ben will be on vacation. Join us for the lovely and musical worship service.

Sunday, October 20 - Vestry meets after coffee hour.

Many thanks to the Gerharts for hosting our parish picnic on September 22. The weather, food, and fellowship were all perfect. There are pictures up on Trinity's Facebook page and will also be on the web site in the next few days.

Our In-Gathering was September 29. However, if you missed it, you can still bring in your blue box or check offering; we won't send the check in until later this month. Pick up a new Blue Box from the narthex table for next time.

Our latest baskets to donate to the Abuse and Rape Crisis Center. Marie Bubniak coordinates this Outreach project by putting together different sorts: personal items (sample sizes are good), kitchen and bathroom items, household and laundry, and supplies for birthday parties. Talk to Marie about donating items or if you'd like to help.

Another opportunity for Outreach is this year's ECW project, Cypress House Bakery, a new outreach program begun by St. Luke's, Scranton. The bakery will teach skills to those newly released from incarceration and will feature fresh bread and gourmet sandwiches. If you wish to donate to this project, make your check payable to Episcopal Diocese of Bethlehem with Cypress House Bakery in the for line. Mail to Diocesan House, 333 Wyandotte St., Bethlehem, PA 18015.

Buildings and Grounds: The vestry has compiled a long list of things that need work or upkeep; if you notice something that needs to be done, or would like to help, speak to Nate Schwartzberg, our junior warden.
